- I have a strong background in colour theory, typography, branding, illustration and a thorough understanding of the conceptual, technical, and production processes for print design.
- I am confident in interpreting client's problem visually to deliver their message.
- I am self-motivated, manage time well, and thrive under pressure.
- I work well in a team and maintain professional relationships.
- I enjoy creative activities such as painting, storyboarding, drawing and photography.
- I use analytic, imaginative, experimental and insightful ways to develop my designs.
- I have a friendly personality that enables other to easily approach me with design problems.
- I am hardworking and humble.
- I have an open mind to accept criticism from others and take criticism into consideration to enhance my designs.

Recent Creative Accomplishments

- Participated in Labour Fair poster contest for George Brown College in 2008.
- Achieved honourable mention for a photography project on Sharon Temple in 2006.
- Collaborated with two students in painting a mural at Riverdale Collegiate in 2001.

Education

3-year diploma in graphic design at George Brown College's School of Design and obtained 1-year certificate in art and design foundation with honours at George Brown College's School of Design.

Employment History

I worked in a call center called Infolink as a call center agent where I developed strong communication, listening and behavioural skills to effectively understand requirements for a project and the importance of communication with clients.

I volunteered at Woodgreen Centre as an Office Assistant in assisting the manager in filing, sorting files, and photocopying. This experience has taught me the value of being a reliable employee and developing strong organizational skills to get the job done faster.
